ISEP

ISEP exchanges are based on a reciprocal exchange of benefits, this means that tuition and housing are paid directly to Northwest.

ISEP-Direct programs are fee-paid study abroad programs that provide study opportunities beyond those offered through reciprocal exchanges at select ISEP institutions outside the United States. Due to the extensive number of universities that are ISEP members we are listing just the countries where you can study abroad, for detailed information about schools visit:
