

Survivors' Resources

Northwest Missouri State University is committed to supporting all survivors of sexual harassment and/or sexual and relationship violence. As such, the following on-campus and off-campus resources are available to all survivors:

On-Campus:

- Northwest Survivor Advocate*‡- The Survivor Advocate, Rose Viau, is available to answer questions about the criminal prosecution and/or Title IX investigatory process, ensure understanding of the alternatives, and provide support throughout those processes. Rose can be contacted at 660-562-1085 or by email at rviau@nwmissouri.edu. After-hours contact can be made through University Police (below), regardless of whether the survivor chooses to file a police report.
- Clinic Services‡- Students needing medical attention after an assault may seek treatment at the Wellness Center during regular business hours. Services include treatment for cuts/bruises/injuries, pregnancy tests, emergency contraception, and treatment for sexually transmitted infections. Appointments can be scheduled at 660-562-1348.
- Personal Development and Counseling Services†- Counseling services are provided free of charge to all Northwest students, and the University highly recommends that survivors speak with a counselor. The PDC is located in the Wellness Center and appointments can be scheduled by calling 660-562-1348.
- Title IX Coordinator- The Title IX Coordinator, Rebecca Lawrence, receives inquiries regarding Title IX, including complaints of sexual harassment/violence and relationship violence involving students and staff. She can be contacted by calling 660-562-1013 or by email at rebecca@nwmissouri.edu.
- University Police-UPD ensures the overall safety of the Northwest community, and officers are available 24/7 to respond to emergencies and receive reports of sexual and relationship violence involving students and staff. Additionally, officers can connect survivors with the Survivor Advocate after hours, regardless of whether the survivor chooses to file a police report. UPD can be contacted at 660-562-1254 or by calling 911 on campus.

Off-Campus:

- Children and Family Center*†- The Children and Family Center can provide a Survivor Advocate and residential shelter, and facilitates survivor support groups. To contact CFC, call 660-562-2320.
- St. Francis Health Services†- St. Francis Health Services provides counseling for wide-range of issues, including to sexual harassment/sexual violence survivors. Appointments can be scheduled at 660-562-7922.
- St. Francis Hospital*†- All survivors of sexual violence are highly encouraged to seek care from a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) to collect any evidence available. Additionally, St. Francis can provide treatment for injuries and/or sexually transmitted infection, and offers pregnancy tests and emergency contraception. Walk-in emergency care is available 24/7 at the hospital. For more information call 660-562-2600.
- Maryville Public Safety- MPS is the law enforcement agency for the City of Maryville and its officers are available 24/7 to respond to emergencies or receive reports of sexual and relationship violence that occur off-campus. MPS can be contacted at 660-562-3209 or by calling 911.
- Employee Assistance Program- Provides free counseling and referral services to Northwest employees and their immediate family members. EAP can be contacted by calling their 24/7 hotline at 1-800-964-3577.
