DISTRIBUTION OF DOMESTIC ENTITIES OF VARYING SPATIAL ALIGNMENT

A THESIS PRESENTED TO THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES IN CANDIDACY FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF SCIENCE

By JOHN S. DOEMAN

NORTHWEST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY MARYVILLE, MISSOURI APRIL 2013
Distribution of Domestic Entities of Varying Spatial Alignment

Bruce R. Dunn
Northwest Missouri State University

THESIS APPROVED

Thesis Advisor

Dean of Graduate School
Abstract

It is suggested that no more than 120 words be utilized to write an abstract which provides a concise, accurate, and self-explanatory resume of the major points and findings of the thesis. It should contain the purpose, the type of research pursued, and the principal results, conclusion, and significance. The Abstract is to be placed immediately following the Approval Page.