Hearing Committees

Residence Hall Discipline Committee

This committee is facilitated by each residence hall director who selects the discipline committee to hear cases regarding hall violations as well as class A or B violations on behalf of the Dean of Students. Each hall director serves as an advisor to the Residence Hall Discipline Committee which consists of a representative from the various living areas, excluding Resident Assistants.

Student Discipline Committee

The designated Residential Life Professional facilitates the selection of seven student members who represent the diversity of the campus population. The Student Discipline Committee will hear those cases involving Class B violations, those violations deemed by the Student Discipline Committee to be serious in nature and appeals of the Residence Hall Discipline Committee cases.

Student-Faculty Discipline Committee

This committee is composed of four faculty members and four students with a non-voting faculty chairperson appointed. The Student-Faculty Discipline Committee hears Class "C" violations and those cases in which dismissal from the University could be the sanction recommended. It may also serve as an Appeal Committee for the Student Discipline Committee.
