ANTI-HAZING POLICY

The act of hazing is a violation of Northwest Missouri State University’s Student Conduct Code and Missouri State Law. Northwest Missouri State University does not condone nor tolerate hazing of any type by any organization, or by an individual against another individual. The following Missouri State statues define hazing in an educational institution and the penalties associated with individuals caught in the act of hazing.

Missouri State Law/Statutes on Hazing

578.360. As used in sections 578.360 to 578.365, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following terms mean:

1. “Educational institution,” a public or private college or university;

2. “Hazing,” a willful act, occurring on or off the campus of an educational institution, directed against a student or a prospective member of an organization operating under the sanction of an educational institution, that recklessly endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student or prospective member for the organization for the purpose of initiation or admission into or continued membership in any such organization to the extent that such person is knowingly placed at probable risk of the loss of life or probable bodily or psychological harm.

Acts of hazing shall include:

a. Any activity which recklessly endangers the physical health or safety of the student or prospective member, including but not limited to physical brutality, whipping, beating, branding, exposure to the elements, forced consumption of any food, liquor, drug, or other substance or forced smoking or chewing of tobacco products; or

b. Any activity which recklessly endangers the mental health of the student or prospective member, including but not limited to sleep deprivation, physical confinement, or other extreme stress-inducing activity; or

1. A person commits the crime of hazing if he knowingly participates in or causes hazing, as it is defined in section 578.360.

4. Consent is not a defense to hazing. Section 565.080 does not apply to hazing cases or to homicide cases arising out of hazing activity.

Northwest Missouri State University Policy on Hazing
In addition to Missouri State Law, Northwest Missouri State University also has accepted and recognizes the definition of hazing by the Fraternity Executive Association as any intentional action taken or situation created, whether on or off University premises, that produces mental or physical discomfort, embarrassment, harassment, or ridicule. The express implied consent of the victim will not be a defense. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing are not neutral acts and may be considered violations of this policy.

Hazing of individuals as members or perspective members of any campus entity shall not be tolerated. Campus entities include any group of persons operating under the name Northwest Missouri State University as employees, students, alumni, friends, or other association. They include, but are not limited to, residence hall living groups, athletic teams, fraternal Greek organizations, honorary societies, performing arts groups and recognized campus organizations.

Northwest Missouri State University will investigate any incident in which a charge of hazing has been made. Investigations will be conducted by University Police and, if warranted, will be forwarded to the university’s judicial process. University recognition may be temporarily withdrawn pending hearings and due process procedures.

Should it be determined that a student organization or any of its members is guilty of hazing as previously defined, university sanctions may include but are not limited to:
1) Automatic and indefinite suspension of campus recognition with an accompanying loss of all campus privileges, (i.e. use of facilities, student services, etc.)

VIII. EDUCATION

A. All Greek chapters are to educate members on this policy no later than September 30th of the Fall semester. To verify that all members of the Greek community have viewed and understand this policy, chapters must obtain the signatures of all chapter members after reading this document. A form will be provided by the Office of Campus Activities and is due no later than September 30th for the Fall semester and February 15 for the Spring semester.

B. Any chapter in violation of these policies will be subject to an investigation and potential sanctions.
   1. Each judicial case will be handled on a case by case basis. Therefore, once the Greek advisor has been notified of a potential violation the following will occur:
      a. The chapter president will be notified and asked to meet with the Greek advisor to present their side of the story.
      b. The chapter president will be asked to contact their advisor and national headquarters before the Greek advisor contacts them.
      c. The Greek advisor will conduct an investigation in a timely manner.
      d. Once the investigation is complete, the Greek advisor will ask the chapter president to meet with them again and update them on where the situation is. At that time, the following can occur:
         i. The chapter takes responsibilities for their actions, admits any wrongdoings and creates a plan of self-imposed sanctions that are to be agreed upon by the governing council, the council advisor and the Greek advisor. That plan will then be followed up on and enforced by the governing council.
         ii. The chapter does not admit any wrongdoing and has the opportunity to plead their case through mediation or a judicial board hearing and those policies and procedures are then followed and enforced.
            1. If three or more chapters from one council are involved in the alleged violation, the Greek advisor has the opportunity to use trained judicial board members from each of the councils and create a one-time Greek judicial board to hear the case.
         iii. The Greek advisor will impose sanctions that can include but are not limited to educational enrichment, notification of chapter advisors, advisory board, district or national headquarters, social suspension, fines distributed by our office or loss of student organization recognition.
