Community Policies

For your safety and to help protect our residence halls from damage, outside sports and activities are not allowed in any of our residence halls. This policy also includes dart board games, which can do a lot of damage.

Northwest provides furniture in its lounges for all residents to enjoy. Lounge furniture must remain in the lounge and should not be taken to individual rooms. All university supplied furniture must remain in your room. Residents are responsible for any furniture assigned to their room. Keep furniture in your room helps cut down on wear and tear and helps prevent loss of furniture.

In order to provide a safe and comfortable environment for everyone, our cohabitation policy says that guests may not stay in your room for more than 3 consecutive nights in a 30 day period.

To help prevent the risk of fire, all lit candles, including birthday candles, and incense are prohibited in the residence halls you may keep a candle if the wick has been removed and you can even melt the candle on an electric candle warmer.

Providing a quality living environment at Northwest is everyone’s responsibility at Northwest and Residential Life appreciates your consideration for others.
