Safety Tip.
Protect Your Vision with a Little Foresight

1. Assess your worksite and identify all potential eye hazards.
2. Talk to your supervisor about eliminating eye hazards through engineering controls wherever possible, such as enclosing processes, providing local ventilation, using shields.
3. Take the time to get your eye protection adjusted properly.
4. Replace eye protection regularly and keep protection in good condition.

Quote of the Month
The great thing in this world is not so much where we stand as in what direction we are moving.
