GETTING STARTED

Congratulations on choosing Northwest Missouri State University! This packet contains important information you need to know about becoming a Bearcat, such as housing or commuter information, health forms, checklists, deadlines, registration and orientation.

YOUR NORTHWEST NETWORK ACCOUNT USERNAME

Your Northwest Network Account username, also known as your S number, was provided to you in your acceptance letter. This number will allow you to:

- apply for housing
- apply for major-specific scholarships
- register for Summer Orientation, Advisement and Registration (SOAR)
- view your room assignment
- view your class schedule

HOUSING POLICY

All first-year students must live in the residence halls unless they are married, at least 21 years of age, commuting from their parent or legal guardian's primary residence within 60 miles of Maryville (where they lived during high school) or have a child.

HEALTH HISTORY FORM

Prior to starting classes at Northwest and moving into your residence hall room, students must complete and return a Health History Form. The form can be found in this packet or at nwmissouri.edu/wellness/PDF/HEALTHFORM.pdf and should be returned to Wellness Services at least 30 days before classes begin.

In addition to completing a Health History Form, students must submit immunization records showing two doses of MMR vaccine and the Meningococcal vaccine. Per Missouri state law, no student will be allowed to move into residence halls without Northwest receiving record of the Meningococcal vaccine.

Requirements for other vaccines subject to change based on University policy updates.*

LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITIES

Living Learning Communities (LLCs) offer students with similar interests the opportunity to connect and learn with one another in a living and learning environment. The communities are designed to ease the transition to college life and provide support for personal and academic growth that encourages our mission of student success.

Beginning Nov. 1, you can apply for a Living Learning Community at the same time you complete your housing application in CatPAWS.

LOW-COST OPTION

Cooperative community housing comes with very different expectations and offerings than any other residence hall.

- Limited spaces available.
- To assist each student's ability to pay the majority of their room and board fees, a student employment job placement effort will be made by Northwest. On-campus jobs will be available, but not guaranteed for all applicants. Employment is not required to live in this hall.

For more information and eligibility requirements, visit nwmissouri.edu/reslife/RS/nccchsng.htm.

UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

SAFETY AND SECURITY

Residential Life works closely with University Police to provide students with a safe living environment. All exterior residence hall doors are secured 24/7 with an electronic access system. Resident assistants conduct rounds throughout the building each night to ensure that policies are enforced and the community is safe.

GENDER-NEUTRAL HOUSING

Northwest offers students the option to live in gender-neutral housing. Students of different genders may live together in Tower Suites, Forest Village Apartments, the first floor lofts of South Complex and the sixth and seventh floors of Franken Hall.

For more information, contact Residential Life at 660.562.1214 or reslife@nwmissouri.edu.

CAMPUS DINING

Whether you eat every meal on campus or just grab a bite now and then, you will love the VALUE, VARIETY AND CONVENIENCE of your meal membership. Campus dining is available seven days a week.

MEAL MEMBERSHIPS

HOW DO THEY WORK?

We're actively working to create a variety of meal memberships that meet your individual needs! Whether you want a set number of swipes or unlimited meals, we've got you covered.

WHAT IS ALL ACCESS?

Students can go into the Bearcat Commons unlimited times throughout the day to grab a snack, a drink or a meal. The Commons has later hours to accommodate a student's busy schedule.

To view the most up-to-date rates, visit:
nwmissouri.edu/studentaccounts/roomcosts.htm.

STUDENT SUCCESS

The Student Success Center supports student learning and contributes to growth and development from orientation to graduation.

Included in tuition and fees, students receive support through:

- New Student Orientation
- University Seminar
- Academic Advisement
- Success Coaching
- Tutoring
- Supplemental Instruction

For more information about services offered, visit nwmissouri.edu/studentsuccess/.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Northwest is committed to student success, and we will provide reasonable living and learning accommodations to assist with education goals.

- Complete a Northwest accommodations application at nwmissouri.edu/titleixequity/accessibility/index/htm. You will log in with your Northwest Network Account information provided at the time of your acceptance. Provide supporting documentation from your health professional to ada@nwmissouri.edu. High school IEP or 504 plans are not accepted at the college level.
- We recommend you request accommodations for a disability from Northwest Accessibility and Accommodations well in advance of your arrival.
- Questions about accommodations can be sent to ada@nwmissouri.edu.

Additional information and resources for students about accommodations is available at nwmissouri.edu/titleixequity/accessibility/index.htm.

BEARCAT TIP

Begin your application for accommodations as early as possible to ensure success.

COMPLETE 30

Develop a plan with your advisor to complete 30 credit hours each academic year to achieve timely degree completion.

FIRST-YEAR EXPERIENCE

ORIENTATION AND REGISTRATION

Orientation and registration are important steps to beginning your student experience at Northwest! First-year student orientation is comprised of three parts: Summer Orientation, Advisement and Registration (SOAR), Advantage and University Seminar.

SOAR

Sign up for SOAR to meet with an advisor and get your initial class schedule. For the list of SOAR dates and registration information, visit nwmissouri.edu/admissions/fye/soar

ADVANTAGE

Aug. 17-20, 2023

A four-day continuation of SOAR designed to acclimate students to campus.

For more information about Advantage, visit nwmissouri.edu/admissions/fye/advantage

UNIVERSITY SEMINAR

Course designed to assist first-year students through their first semester.
