

Northwest Retiree Association

Condensed responses by category to interest survey in 2019

Educational

Education for people

Hubble Telescope Discoveries with John Shaw – Dec 8, 2022

Civil War – To begin Jan ? 2023 with Joel Benson

Socrates Café (successful event 2019 with Jim Eiswert)

Living and working in a senior living community

Technology

Candidates' forum

Hobby/Special Interest

Flowers/Plants/Gardening

Trains/Model trains

Quilting and sewing

Watercolor and other painting

Travel

Weather

Woodworking

Genealogy

Work on old cars

Baking/cooking

Mechanical work

Political discussions (national and international)

Basket making

Rv'ing

Bible Study

Book Club

Science Fiction

Animal welfare

Movies

Restaurant dining

Arts, what happened to on-campus arts?

Sports/Active/Exercise/Health and Wellness

Community aging issues

Bocce ball

Fishing

Hunting
Pickle ball
Fantasy leagues
Golf
Auto racing
Biking
Exercise/walking
Square dance
Yoga group
Walking group
Cricket – perhaps a demo by international students

University Related Projects

Scholarship
Recruitment
Substitute Lecturer Program
Availability for judging events such as History Day, Presidential Scholar, etc.
Northwest continued success
Student welfare
Student/alumni network
Connect alumni association and Northwest Foundation
Attending University athletic events

Community Related Events

Maryville Citizens for Community Action (MCCA) connect with Lisa Macali
Nodaway County Retired School Employees Association for joint projects – Jolaine, Margaret Drew
Literacy
Tutoring

Day Trips

Lettuce Dream
Conception Abby/Clyde Convent and soap factory – exceptional art and architecture in our own backyard.
Miniature Golf - St. Joe, MO
Shatto Dairy, Osborn, MO – see milk processing to finished product, barns and young animals

King City, MO – options include Miller’s Rustic Saw Mill, Tri-County Museum, Wind Energy Visitors’ Center, Prairie Flowers, and perhaps a business that builds racing engines for tractor pulls. An antique shop could be scheduled near Rosendale on the return trip – Buffalo Ridge Antiques (also raise Bison) or through Stanberry, Wildcat Creek Emporium.

Purely Social

Happy Hour

Backyard Vine and Wine

Picnic

Restaurant Hopping

Homecoming Parade