Located at the front door of the R.T. Wright Farm, the Agricultural Learning Center will allow producers, consumers and all Northwest students to come together to discuss, learn and strategize solutions for the agriculture and food system. For donations of $25,000 and greater, you can be recognized for your donation on the plat map. Example of potential donations and space naming options below.

To learn more, contact:
Office of University Advancement 660.562.1248
advance@nwmissouri.edu