New Business

Resolution #8612: Regent Sutton made a motion, seconded by Regent Panethiere, to approve the following curriculum proposals:

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES, History, Humanities, Philosophy, and Political Science

Proposal #210-39-01. Change in credit hours. This proposal brings the "Independent Study in Philosophy" course (39-579) into alignment with the other programs in the department, which offer independent studies as a 1, 2, or 3 hour offering. Change 39-579 Independent Study in Philosophy (1-2 credit hours) to (1-3 credit hours).

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES, English

Proposal #210-10-03. Change in course number. FROM: 10-420 Publication Skills TO: 10-510 Publication skills. This change will allow graduate students to take the course for graduate credit and allow students to explore another option for a career or further graduate work.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES, Psyc/Soc/Coun & HPERD

Proposal #109-08-01. New minor in Sport Psychology. This would be a new 24-hour interdisciplinary minor that would provide an option of study for students interested in sport psychology, which is a field combining psychology and exercise science. The minor provides a blend of knowledge about physical activity as well as the psychological factors that influence sport, exercise, and wellness. The course has 12 hours of required "core" courses and 6 hours of electives from each of two categories: Psychology and Physical Education. All courses are existing courses and are able to accommodate additional students.

BOOTH COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIES, Marketing/Management

Proposal #109-55-02. New course and change in Comprehensive major in International Business. This proposal is a continuation of the curricular changes/improvements that have resulted from benchmarking better practices in the industry. New course: 55-437 International Marketing (3 credit hours). This course will help students recognize and explain the growing importance of international dimensions in marketing strategy and practice. Change in Comprehensive major in International Business: Remove 51-408

Managerial Accounting and Replace the course with 55-437 International Marketing. No change in credit hours.

BOOTH COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIES, Accounting/Econ/Finance

Proposal #210-53-01. Change to Financial Services option of the Finance Major. This proposal replaces 53-421 Selected Cases in Finance (3 credit hours) with 55-430 Sales and Sales Management. This option of the Finance major was designed for students who want to go into banking, financial advising, or insurance, all of which likely require selling.

A voice vote was taken. Motion carried unanimously.
