REPORTS as presented in agenda item 3.05

Miscellaneous Reports

- Regent Joyner gave a report on Foundation Board meeting
- Derek Method, IFC President, shared concerns regarding the University's proposed Student Organization Conduct Policy, stating that they would like a seat at the table during discussions

Student Senate – Alyssa Lincoln

- The Student Senate supports the 900 students involved with Greek Life
- Organizational Affairs Committee is diligently working to support all active student organizations and appropriating money
- Freshmen Class representative positions have been filled and members are engaged in work
- Derek Method, Fraternity Council president reported on a recent meeting to discuss revisions to the student conduct policy and asked for student representatives to be included in future discussions

Faculty Senate – Dr. Brian Haile

- The 45th faculty senate met for the first time Wednesday, September 5 following the new timeframe for transition established in the spring. This new timeframe allowed certain Faculty Senate committees a less traumatic transition considering the time-sensitive work they do
- Many of the Faculty Senate committees such as CDR (Curriculum and Degree Requirements) have already did much work while others are getting organized and preparing for items coming their way
- Of course, the Faculty Senate is working with the Provost in preparation for the HLC visit in a few days

Staff Council – Gabrielle Hawkins

- None

Student Regent – Janay Orange

- None

President's Report – John Jasinski

- Performance Excellence highlighted and attached
