Specific changes to the Professional Education Program are listed below:

ACT requirement:

- ACT or SAT or ACT waiver on file in TESS Office

C-BASE/Missouri General Education Assessment (MoGEA) requirement:

- 235 on each subsection of the C-BASE
- If you have not begun taking the C-BASE by August 1, 2013, you will be required to take the new Missouri General Education Assessment (MoGEA). The minimum score requirement has yet to be determined for this test.
- If you have begun taking the C-BASE, you will have until December 2013 to pass all subsections of the test with scores of 235 or higher.

GPA requirements:

- 2.75 Overall GPA
- 3.00 major GPA
- 3.00 professional education GPA

Licensure requirement:

- Pass the appropriate licensure examination prior to graduation. Prior to September 2014, you will need to take and pass the appropriate PRAXIS II examination. In September 2014, the PRAXIS II will be replaced by another content/subject area examination.

TK20 requirement:

- Purchase a TK20 subscription

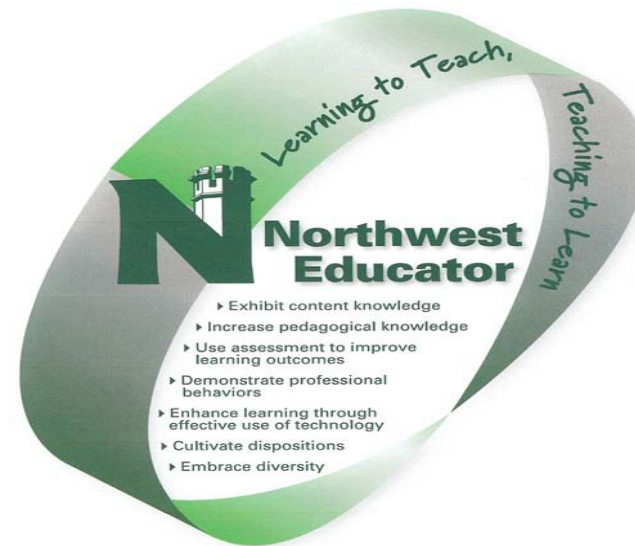

Other new assessment requirements being implemented by the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education:

- Missouri Educator Profile for both entry to the program and prior to student teaching—implementation planned for September 2013
- Missouri Standards-Based Performance Assessment for both entry and exit to the Professional Education Program—implementation planned for September 2014
