

Integrated Student Success Model leads to increases in academic success and retention of at-risk students

Academic Success Coaching Program participants (N=111)

Students conditionally admitted to Northwest based on ACT composite, admissions index and class rank

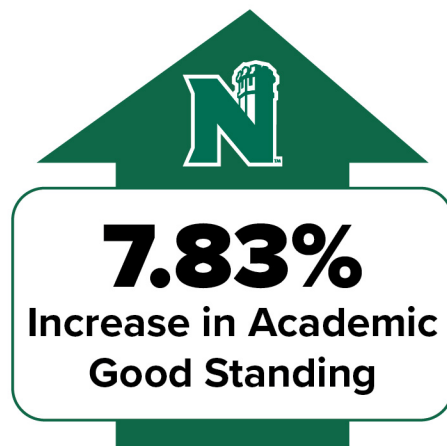

*5.36% increase over the previous three-year average

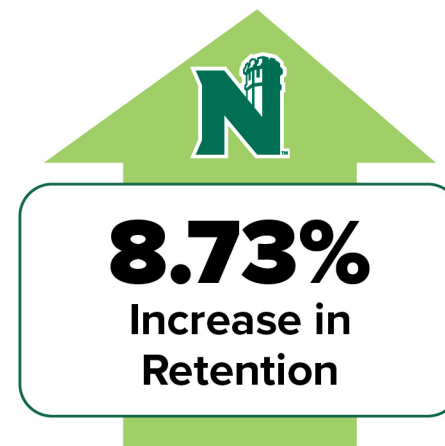

*5.67% increase over the previous three-year average

Academic Recovery Program (N=130)

Students on academic probation following their first semester at Northwest

48.46% of academic recovery students finished in academic good standing compared to previous three-year average of 41.03%

36.92% of academic recovery students returned to Northwest compared to previous 3-year average of 28.19%