

Description

The Office of Equity & Accessibility will be hosting a Title IX and ADA training sessions to educate faculty and staff on Title IX & ADA guidelines and compliance, as well as recent changes. All employees who are likely to receive information about sexual harassment or sexual violence (we'll refer to both as sexual misconduct) must be trained on a regular basis for compliance. The training will cover practical information on:

Title IX

Overview of Title IX
Who? What? Where? When? How? Of Title IX
Recent Developments
Actual Case Studies

ADA and Reasonable Accommodations

Overview of the ADA and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act
Reasonable Accommodation Process
Types of Reasonable Accommodations
Pets on Campus
Mental Health
Actual Case Studies

Date/location of event: 4/11 @ 10am-12pm 2pm-4pm Tower View Dining Room

Date/location of event: 4/12 @ 9am-11am 1pm-3pm Tower view Dining Room (All training session will be the same, so participants only need to attend one.

Margaret-Ann Pierre, Esq. Director of Equity and Accessibility (660) 562-1013

NW email: mpierre@nwmissouri.edu

Sign up link: <https://www.nwmissouri.edu/diversity/rsvp/discrimination-training.htm>