Dr. Bates moved, seconded by Dr. Kreizinger, to approve Proposal 107-66-01, Approval of New Course, “Sociolinguistics” (66-688). If a student has already taken “Multiculturalism in Education” (61-569) as an undergraduate, they may not take this course again towards their master’s degree. This is an option for those in the ELL program who have already taken Multiculturalism. This course will be taught online. Proposals will be submitted to include this course in the ELL programs. The motion was unanimously approved.

There will be a High School to College Conference on campus on November 20. Principals and counselors from our top feeder schools will be attending. This team has identified four major achievement areas. A two-day workshop will be developed for the summer to address the curriculum development needs in the basics. This is mandated by SB 389.

The meeting was adjourned.

Max L. Ruhl, Executive Secretary
