Dear Colleague:

Greetings from the campus of Northwest Missouri State University, home of the Northwest Missouri State University Annual Show and Jazz Choir Festival. This year's event will be Saturday, February 9, 2019.

Our long tradition, coupled with wonderful quality performing groups, make the festival one of the strongest and well-attended in the mid-west.

The Performing Arts Center at Northwest allows each group to truly showcase their talents.

Qualified, experienced judges from the world of performing arts are an important part of our festival philosophy. Our panel of adjudicators will bring their skills and expertise to each performance, helping us maintain the highest level of quality you expect at our festival.

Invitations will be limited to the first 18 choirs to register!

Upon receipt of your registration form and indication of payment, we will send you detailed information regarding the festival.

We look forward to seeing you and your students at the festival on February 9. If we can assist you in any way, please call.

Sincerely,

Brian Lanier
