NORTHWEST POSTCARD

Tania Teruel, a Northwest student from Almeria, Spain, raised her country's flag Oct. 20 during the University's 20th Annual International Flag-Raising Ceremony as part of Homecoming activities.

The Joyce and Harvey White International Plaza features 54 flags representing countries throughout the world, sponsored by Northwest alumni and friends, as a tribute to students and alumni who have come to the University from other nations. A granite Friends Wall, located prominently at the south entrance of the Flag Plaza, also acknowledges all who supported the project and features five clocks indicating the time in Maryville and four international time zones.

NORTHWEST NAMED TOP FUNDRAISING INSTITUTION

Northwest is the recipient of a 2017 Educational Fundraising Award for Overall Performance, an honor presented annually by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) to superior fundraising programs at educational institutions across the country.

Northwest was the only school in Missouri to receive an Educational Fundraising Award this year.

"The confidence our donors have in Northwest Missouri State University is at an all-time high," Mike Johnson '85, Northwest's vice president of university advancement, said. "This prestigious award for our institution and the Northwest Foundation demonstrates an increased spirit and power of philanthropy pulling together, and we are grateful."

Selection is based on data submitted to the Council for Aid to Education's annual Voluntary Support of Education survey. Judges reviewed the fundraising data of 554 eligible institutions before naming award winners. Of the 89 colleges and universities selected to receive Educational Fundraising Awards, 43 won the award for overall performance.

DEAR FRIENDS

What a year, Bearcats! The introduction of five professional schools. Profession-based learning continuing to take shape across curricular and co-curricular offerings. Best college in Missouri for getting a job by zippia.com. National championships.

We released a study showing $66.5 million in cost containment and efficiencies during the last four years – and this coupled nicely with the recent economic impact study showing Northwest provides $617.5 million in added regional income.

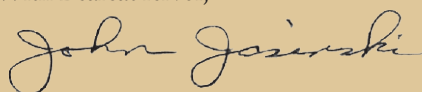

We completed our campus master plan and moved the School of Agricultural Sciences to the Dean L. Hubbard Center for Innovation. Our Fourth Street Improvement Project was named a “Great Places” recipient for the state of Missouri.

Bearcat confidence elevated support through three major gift announcements. We celebrated our first endowed professorship – the Dennis C. Dau Endowed Professorship in Instrumental Music. The naming of the Michael L. Faust Center for Alumni and Friends was made possible through the support of the Suzanne and Walter Scott Foundation. The naming of the Carl and Cheryl Hughes Fieldhouse came via the generosity of the Hughes Family Foundation – and unprecedented major gift support from the Founding 50 donor team.

Our donors and alumni are so passionate about Northwest, and we are grateful for the support you continue to show the University. Your gifts are a testament to belief in our mission of focusing on student success – every student every day – and our focus on providing a quality education that is accessible and affordable to all. Further, this level of private support is another indicator of Northwest’s strength and culture as an institution known for being safe, trusted, invested and resourceful.

Our priorities remain clear as we accelerate toward developing philanthropic partnerships in academic excellence, agricultural sciences, scholarships and the Northwest Fund.

With Bearcat fervor,

Dr. John Jasinski, president

DONORS SUPPORTING NORTHWEST'S FUTURE

Hughes Fieldhouse will enhance student, community engagement

When Northwest began formulating plans to build a facility designed to enhance student engagement and wellness, raise its competitive advantage in collegiate athletics and enrich partnerships with the Maryville community, Melvin '67 and Valorie Booth were among the first to join the team.

“One of the reasons we stepped up early on with a significant gift was to put a meaningful number to it and let people know we’re serious about it, and we really believe in the future,” Mel Booth said.

The Booth family’s seven-figure gift in support of the Carl and Cheryl Hughes Fieldhouse helped propel the Northwest Foundation and the University to break ground in June on the 137,250 square-foot, $20 million facility, which is designed to serve a multitude of social, recreational and economic needs for the University and region.

While the project represents the single largest public-private partnership in Northwest’s 112-year history and one of the largest such projects in the region ever, donors have so far committed $13.5 million to it through donations and pledges secured by the Northwest Foundation. Multiple other sources, including the University and students, are contributing to the project while a remaining $150,000 gap must be raised to complete the facility.

The Booths are among the leading supporters of the project, joining Carl '76 and Cheryl Deweerdt Hughes '78 and the Hughes Family Foundation, the city of Maryville and Nodaway Valley Bank as “team captains” of the Founding 50, a group representing donors giving $50,000 and greater.

“This, to me, is a game changer,” Mel Booth said. “Northwest has always been at the forefront of delivering a top-notch education and student engagement experience. The Hughes Fieldhouse represents the next step in this evolution to keep Northwest on the cutting edge.”

Since graduating from Northwest with a bachelor’s degree in accounting, Mel Booth has led multibillion dollar companies worldwide in the pharmaceutical and life sciences fields.

The steel skeleton of the Hughes Fieldhouse began rising from the ground this fall.

He and his wife, Valorie, established the Melvin D. and Valorie G. Booth Bethany Business Scholarship at Northwest in 2001 after making a major gift to the University to establish the Booth School of Business, which was subsequently named in their honor.

Supporters of the University and the community have found ways to contribute to the campaign, and the Booths actively encourage others to be a part of it – at any level of giving.

Nodaway Valley Bank also has a long-standing partnership that dates back to before Northwest’s 1905 founding when the bank’s president at that time, James B. Robinson, helped make sure state officials looking at locations for a new state college came to Maryville.

Through the years, Nodaway Valley Bank has given to Northwest in support of scholarships and academic programming. In 2012, the bank provided a large cash gift that resulted in Northwest’s state-of-the-art video board at Bearcat Stadium.

“This University is very important to the city, to our area, to the people that live here,” James G. Robinson, Nodaway Valley Bank’s chief executive officer, said. “Without things like this progressing, you would see a different population. Without the University in Nodaway County, this would be a lot different economic situation, and it’s always been a part of the bank.”

Northwest Foundation reaches historic levels for contributions in FY17

The Northwest Foundation, the fundraising arm of Northwest, recorded a historic fiscal year 2017, securing nearly $13 million in donor funding while exceeding its goal for the year by 82 percent.

The historic year included three seven-figure gifts, while the average gift increased 20 percent to about $4,700, outdoing peer institutions by 16 percent. Ninety-four percent of the total funds raised by the Foundation were cash contributions, which also is an all-time high for the organization.

“Our donors and alumni are so passionate about Northwest, and we are grateful for the support they continue to show the University,” Northwest President Dr. John Jasinski said. “Their gifts are a testament to their belief in our mission of focusing on student success – every student every day – and our focus on providing a quality education that is accessible and affordable to all. Further, this level of private support is another indicator of Northwest’s strength and culture as an institution known for being safe, trusted, invested and resourceful.”

Among the Foundation’s FY17 highlights, with the support of a lead gift by the Hughes Family Foundation, was the June groundbreaking for the Carl and Cheryl Hughes Fieldhouse. The Founding 50, a group of lead donors who have committed gifts of $50,000 or greater to the project, grew to a membership of 74 donors whose gifts represent 99 percent of the dollars raised. Already one of the largest public-private partnerships ever in the region, the project also has secured the largest amount of donor funding for a capital project in Northwest’s history.

Scholarship support remains a central mission of the Foundation, which awarded a record of nearly $1 million to 1,146 students during FY17. That is a 13-percent increase from the prior year, while the average award increased by 20 percent to a high of about $850 per scholarship.

Furthermore, the Foundation achieved a 3 percent increase in funding raised through its 1905 Society during FY17. The 1905 Society is the premier giving society for annual gifts, recognizing supporters who make an annual unrestricted gift of $1,000 or more. It has doubled its membership since its inception in 2007.

The average gift supporting the Foundation’s annual giving program increased by 11 percent, while giving by Northwest faculty and staff reached a historic 45 percent during FY17, representing the highest percentage in the institution’s history and a 59 percent increase in dollars raised from FY16. The giving level by Northwest employees places the institution among the top 75 percent of all master’s-granting institutions, while Northwest alumni giving outpaces peer institutions by nearly 6 percent.

In addition to its annual giving programs and donor stewardship, the Foundation’s alumni engagement activities saw success. The Northwest Alumni Association in February chartered the Black Alumni and Friends chapter as its 21st affiliate group. The number of Alumni Association-sponsored events increased by 37 percent while alumni volunteer hours dedicated to organizing and hosting events increased by 51 percent from FY16. The Northwest Alumni Association counts its membership as 70,000 alumni and friends of the University.

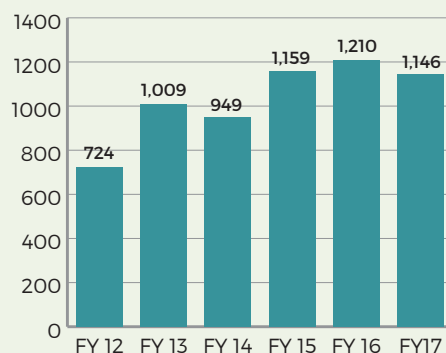

The Northwest Foundation, a 501(c) 3 not-for-profit corporation, is responsible for receiving, investing, stewarding and disbursing private support on behalf of the donors of Northwest Missouri State University for the benefit of the University, its students, faculty, staff and alumni. The Northwest Foundation, governed by a 33-member volunteer board of directors, is staffed by members of Northwest’s Office of University Advancement.

The Foundation’s total assets under management increased 11 percent to $34.9 million while its endowment stands at nearly $24.2 million. In FY17, the Foundation provided $6.3 million to the University to support various needs.

ANNUAL REPORT

The Northwest Alumni Association and the Office of University Advancement’s alumni relations staff continued in FY17 to offer opportunities to alumni and friends to support and stay involved with Northwest. Alumni Relations also includes annual giving and stewardship programs.

The Northwest Alumni Association’s Tourin’ Bearcats travel program continues to be well received. In 2016-2017, alumni and friends enjoyed trips to London and the Pacific Northwest and California, featuring Washington, Oregon and California. The next trip will be to Ireland. For more information, contact the Alumni Relations Office at 660.562.1248.

The Northwest Alumni Association also hosted many great events in 2016-2017. It honored seven individuals at the Alumni Awards Banquet held during the 2016 Family Weekend, and members from the Class of 1966 returned to campus to celebrate their Golden Years reunion at the 2016 Homecoming.

For the second year in a row, Northwest Night at the K was a sold-out event in June and Northwest Night at the St. Joseph Mustangs, also in June, has turned into a summer tradition for alumni and friends of all ages.

Annual giving experienced increases in dollars raised for The 1905 Society. The Northwest Faculty and Staff Annual Giving Campaign, which offers opportunities to give in a meaningful and personal way, continues to outpace peer institutions overall employee giving percentage.

Additionally, the Third Annual Thank a Donor Day event in April provided an opportunity for students and employees to say thank you to Northwest’s generous donors.

The Northwest Alumni Association thanks its volunteers for the more than

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT: JACI REEVES

Reeves, of Newton, Iowa, is a sophomore agricultural education major and a recipient of the F.B. Houghton Memorial Scholarship and the Albert and Virginia Winemiller Scholarship.

"Without the scholarships I received, I would not be able to attend college," she said. "I did not have to take out as many loans to pay for my college due to the scholarships. To the donors of the scholarships I received, a thank you does not do your good deed justice. You are the ones that make attending college possible."

Reeves, the first in her family to attend a four-year institution, selected Northwest for its small class sizes and is grateful for the relationships she has developed with faculty. She is a member of Sigma Society, a service organization for women at Northwest, and says her involvement in clubs and organizations has enabled her growth. Reeves also takes advantage of Supplemental Instruction sessions to maintain her 4.0 grade-point average.

"I have gained many skills and opportunities that I would not have gotten anywhere else," Reeves said. "Northwest has also pushed me to be a more studious student."

After completing her degree, she plans to return to Iowa and teach agriculture at the high school level.

ADOPT-A-BEARCAT SCHOLARSHIPS

To assist in meeting a critical need for current scholarship dollars, the University created this unique annual giving program. Recipients meeting Northwest's current policies for admission and financial assistance receive a one-time, $500 Adopt-a-Bearcat Scholarship to help offset educational expenses. Northwest matches a donor's gift (minimum $250) dollar-for-dollar and awards scholarships in his or her honor or that of a loved one. For example, if a $500 donation is made, Northwest matches it and awards two individual $500 scholarships. These scholarships are crucial in providing the additional funding needed for students who might otherwise not have been able to afford attending Northwest.

Several groups of donors collectively have offered one or more scholarships. Adopt-a-Bearcat Scholarships awarded during the program's fiscal year are listed below.

HERITAGE SOCIETY

JAMES H. LEMON HERITAGE SOCIETY

These donors have created a planned or deferred gift for the University or Foundation. There is no minimum level of gift required.

James H. Lemon, a member of the Missouri House of Representatives, introduced House Bill No. 311, also known at the time as the “Nodaway County Normal bill.” Fighting against strong opposition in the House, Lemon is credited with establishing the Fifth District Normal School as Northwest was originally known. His efforts culminated 30 years of struggle to bring higher education to the region.

LIFETIME GIVING

THE TURRET SOCIETY

These donors have contributed $1 million or more in lifetime gifts.

As students in the early 1900s arrived at the Maryville train depot, one of the first sights to the west of the station was the impressive turrets atop the institution’s Academic Hall, later known as the Administration Building. Through devastating tornados and a destructive fire, the Administration Building and its turrets have withstood the test of time, standing tall as an enduring symbol of Northwest.

THE GAUNT HOUSE SOCIETY

These donors have contributed between $500,000 and $999,999 in lifetime gifts.

Born in Staffordshire, England, on April 4, 1830, Thomas W. Gaunt was the son of Thomas Gaunt and Catherine Wooley. He moved to Nodaway County in 1857, where he established his own plant nursery cultivating a wide variety of ornamental, shade and fruit trees. The Thomas Gaunt House was constructed during the 1870s. It has been the home for all Northwest presidents since its donation in 1905 by the daughters of Thomas Gaunt.

THE BIRCHES SOCIETY

These donors have contributed between $250,000 and $499,999 in lifetime gifts.

The first building erected on campus was Academic Hall, now known as the Administration Building. Its commanding location is situated on the highest point of land between Omaha, Nebraska, and St. Louis on the old Wabash Railroad line, 1,163 feet above sea level. Five cut-leaf birches stood at the site like sentinels, prompting faculty and students to describe the Normal School as being located "behind the birches."

THE BELL TOWER SOCIETY

These donors have contributed between $100,000 and $249,999 in lifetime gifts.

In 1965, Dr. Robert P. Foster announced plans to build a bell tower as a memorial to deceased alumni, former faculty members and those from the University's family who died representing our country. After years of raising money, ground was finally broken in fall 1970 and the sounds of chiming bells greeted students returning for the fall of 1971.

THE LONG WALK SOCIETY

These donors have contributed between $25,000 and $99,999 in lifetime gifts.

The original architect's plans for the campus, which were modeled after Cambridge University, included a large quadrangle, marked on the most northern point by the Administration Building, with all future campus buildings built facing the quadrangle. While the original plans were never realized, the first sidewalk built from the entrance at Fourth Street ran straight up to the front door of the Administration Building and became known as the Long Walk.

NORTHWEST DEDICATES MICHAEL L. FAUST CENTER FOR ALUMNI AND FRIENDS

The Northwest community gathered in October to celebrate the expansion of its alumni center and honor Michael L. Faust '74, whose name is now attached to the historic structure.

The dedication ceremony of the Michael L. Faust Center for Alumni and Friends was the culmination of a construction project the University and its Northwest Foundation announced last year after receiving a $1 million gift commitment from the Suzanne and Walter Scott Foundation of Omaha in Faust's honor.

"Mike's commitment to Northwest Missouri State University is unprecedented, through his extensive sharing of his time, his talent and his many treasures," Mike Johnson '85, Northwest's vice president of university advancement and the executive director of the Northwest Foundation, said. "Mike's loyalty goes beyond a passion to make his beloved alma mater a better place to learn and grow. His servant leadership has been demonstrated over the numerous ways in which he has single handedly devoted himself to others, giving in so many ways as a donor, on our board and as executive in residence."

Faust dedicated a 36-year career to Peter Kiewit Sons' Inc., an Omaha, Nebraska, company where Walter Scott was chairman and chief executive officer. Faust, who retired in 2015 as the assistant to the chairman, also is a director of the Scott Foundation and a staunch supporter of the Scotts' civic and philanthropic activities.

Faust is a passionate supporter of the University and one of the Northwest Foundation Board's longest-serving directors, joining in 2002 and serving as president of the Board from 2008 to 2010.

Multiple Northwest students benefit each academic year from his Michael L. Faust Scholarship, and, in 2015, he provided financial support to upgrade a media lab that serves students in the University's School of Communication and Mass Media. Additionally, he made a significant contribution toward the construction of the Robert and Virginia Foster Fitness Center.

After retiring from Kiewit, Faust accepted an appointment as visiting dean of Northwest's Melvin D. and Valorie G. Booth College of Business and Professional Studies and collaborated with academic leadership to develop strategies for its growth and transition to a professional school. After completing the 15-month appointment, he donated 100 percent of his compensation to the new Booth School of Business.

He has established an irrevocable estate gift for Northwest through a remainder trust and is one of only 11 members in Northwest's history to be part of the Turret Society, the institution's highest recognition for donors.

The expansion added nearly 3,000 square feet to the rear of the home that now includes nine offices and a conference room named in honor of Florence Abarr Lawhead '42, who served on the Northwest Foundation Board of Directors and was active with the Northwest Alumni Association's Arizona Alumni and Friends Chapter.

ANNUAL GIVING

THE REGENTS' CIRCLE

These donors contributed at least $25,000 between July 1, 2016, and June 30, 2017.

The Board of Regents serves as the governing body for Northwest Missouri State University. The nine members, including a non-voting student regent, are appointed by the governor and approved by the Missouri Senate. The board holds the Northwest vision in highest regard.

THE NORTHWEST CIRCLE

These donors contributed between $10,000 and $24,999 between July 1, 2016, and June 30, 2017.

The Fifth District Normal School opened in 1905, offering two-year programs to educate teachers for the region. The name was changed to Northwest Missouri State Teachers College in 1919 as the curriculum began to focus on four-year programs. As its prominence as a regional institution began to grow and the fields of study continued to expand, the name was changed to Northwest Missouri State College in 1949. Finally, as the breadth of its programs continued to increase, especially graduate studies, the name Northwest Missouri State University was approved in 1972. No matter the formal name, the institution has always been known by its alumni and friends as Northwest.

These donors contributed between $5,000 and $9,999 between July 1, 2016, and June 30, 2017.

The cornerstone of Academic Hall, now the Administration building, was laid Oct. 12, 1907, amid great celebration, including a parade. Into the cornerstone, a copper box was placed that included many items from the era such as coins, pictures and a copy of the law that created the Fifth District Normal School. After many heartaches and delays, the building was finally completed in 1910.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL CLUB

These donors contributed between $500 and $999 between July 1, 2016, and June 30, 2017.

Efforts to bring a normal school - a training school for teachers in the public schools - to northwest Missouri began in 1874. After many years of struggle, in 1905, House Bill 311 and Senate Bill 114 were passed and signed into law by Gov. Joseph W. Folk. For 14 years, the institution was known as the Fifth District Normal School and graduated hundreds of teachers who served the region.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT: CALEB LILES

Liles, a freshman biomedical science major from Maryville, is the recipient of scholarships sponsored by the Wilma Hall 20th Century Club, Maryville Kiwanis Club, Maryville Rotary Club and the Maryville Host Lions.

"Receiving scholarships has made my time at Northwest more enjoyable," he said. "I do not have to stress about paying for college as much, and I do not have to stress about always working to pay for college. Not having to constantly work allows me more time to study and get involved on campus."

Liles said he chose to attend Northwest to remain close to his home, for its friendly atmosphere and the ability to build close, professional relationships with faculty. "All the teachers are willing to help you if you ask, and in class I am known as Caleb, not a number."

Through his coursework and membership in the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity and the Pre-Health Occupations Club, Liles says Northwest is changing him "in thousands of ways" and shaping him into a more well-rounded individual. "Becoming more responsible, a better person, and more outgoing are just three of the many ways Northwest has changed me," he said. "College is very different from anything else that I have done, which has changed me for the better."

Liles says he is thankful to the donors who support the scholarships he received and for enabling him to pursue his dream of becoming a doctor and perhaps practicing in a rural community like Maryville. After completing his bachelor's degree at Northwest, he intends to enroll in medical school.

THE LAKE VIEW CLUB

These donors contributed between $250 and $499 between July 1, 2016, and June 30, 2017.

The lake on campus was created during the tenure of President Uel W. Lamkin. Known as Lamkin Lake, College Pond and now Colden Pond, the area has always been a popular place for students to gather and relax. Included in the surrounding geography are the well-known Kissing Bridge, the Karen Hawkins Memorial Peace Pavilion and Joyce and Harvey White International Plaza, making the south entrance to campus a visual masterpiece.

THE 1905 SOCIETY

These donors provided a minimum of $1,000 in unrestricted monetary support that is vital to achieve the possibilities that pave the way for a brighter future for Northwest and its students.

The goals Northwest sets for itself continue to be ambitious, inspiring and visionary. The establishment of the Fifth District Normal School in 1905 was the culmination of a 30-year struggle to bring higher education to the region.

MATCHING GIFT COMPANIES

Most large corporations encourage volunteerism and charitable giving and are willing to match, dollar for dollar - or even greater - the amount that their employees donate to higher education. Along with matching monetary donations, some match volunteer hours with a cash amount. To find out if you or your spouse's employer will match your gift, talk with your human resources office.

Omissions

The Northwest Foundation Inc. acknowledges all donors via letter. Because of space constraints in the Northwest Alumni Magazine, the Foundation is unable to list supporters donating less than $249.

Northwest continually strives to ensure data integrity. Therefore, should you believe there is an omission or discrepancy in the Annual Giving report, please direct your concerns to Lori Steiner in the Office of University Advancement at steiner@nwmissouri.edu or 660.562.1248.
