 - Provost Report (Dr. Hooyman)
 - Dr. Hooyman reported that the three commencement ceremonies will be on December 8. The Northwest Foundation Board will be on campus on 10/19/23 and 10/20/23. They will tour a number of academic facilities. The Board of Regents will also be on 10/20/23. The Flag Raising Ceremony will be held at 2:00 p.m. on 10/20/23. The syllabi separation proposal will make its way to Faculty Welfare and Budget on 10/20/23 for their review. No new news to report from the legislature. There will be no all-academic meeting in January, only faculty presentations. Presentations are still needed.
 - Human Resources (Krista Barcus)
 - Ms. Barcus reported that employees will see no increase in health premiums for the next calendar year. The employee engagement survey is now live through October 30. It will come to Northwest email accounts. The address is noreply@qemailserver.com. The compensation study work with Evergreen has been approved by the NLT. Ms. Barcus will continue to bring reports to Senate.
 - Senate President (Dr. Rhonda Beemer)
 - President Beemer reported that Northwest was asked to participate in 'Be a Santa to a Senior' through Homestead Senior Living. Northwest employees will have the opportunity to support a senior citizen by purchasing gifts. A tree with bulbs bearing needs will go up on November 3. Employees can choose a bulb and purchase the item for seniors. A wrapping party will be held after the collection of items.
 - President Beemer reported on the AI trainings that were held. More training will be held and information distributed to faculty and faculty research and professional development proposals are now available.
 - Academic Petitions (Dr. Miller)
 - Senator Miller reported that the committee met last week. The committee heard nine petitions and granted seven.
