

POINTS OF PRIDE

Hands on classroom experience all four years plus robust community placement partnerships and strong foundations in writing, literacy, and pedagogy.

When I was presented with an opportunity to accept a teacher of record position for pay during my student teaching experience I was confident I could serve that community, and those learners, competently based on the ample positive experiences and broad knowledge base LLW provided."

— Kayte Anthony

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

Our Senior Seminar capstone colloquium provides graduating students with a conference-ready paper for submission or inclusion in a professional portfolio or CV.

SCHOOL OF LANGUAGE, LITERATURE AND WRITING ENGLISH EDUCATION MAJOR

EXAMPLE COURSES

- Intro to Creative Writing
- Intro to the Teaching of Reading
- Studies in Language
- Methods in Secondary English
- Young Adult Literature

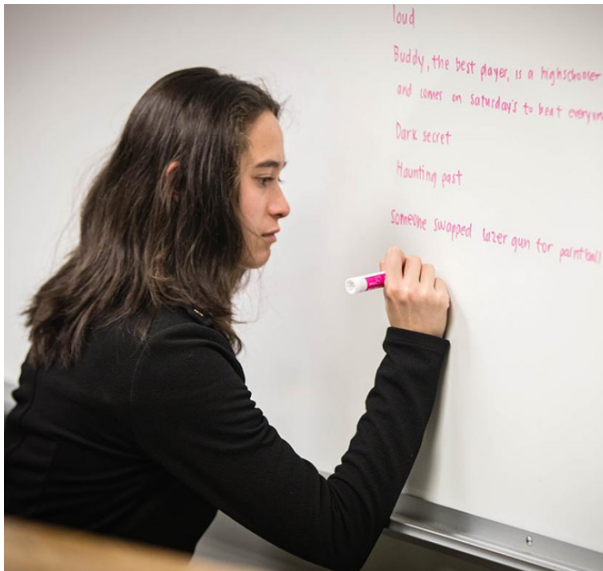

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- 5–12 English Teacher
- ESL/ELL Instructor
- Literacy Coach or Professional Writing-Specialist
- Corporate or Organizational Communications-Specialist
- Media and Journalism Professional
- Library, Museum, or Community
- Education/Development Specialist

With over 120 year of excellence, Northwest's award-winning education program provides ample hands-on classroom experiences plus personalized support from faculty who know your name. Our graduates are in high demand based on their level of content expertise and classroom-ready teaching experience at the culmination of the education program.

Core English classes include all the foundational pieces necessary to instruct a writing and literature classroom like Shakespeare, British, & American literature but also young adult literature, creative writing, and teaching reading/writing courses to allow you to serve and support your future students effectively.

UNDERGRADUATE MAJORS

- English Education Major, B.S.Ed—Minor required
- English Education Comprehensive Major, B.S.Ed.

UNDERGRADUATE MINORS

- Language Arts Concentrations for Middle School Major
- English Minor: Certifiable

ACCELERATED PROGRAM

- English Accelerated Program (Bachelor to Master of Arts)

CONTACT INFORMATION

Jaime Collins
660.562.1265
jaimec@nwmissouri.edu

DISCIPLINE LEAD

Dr. Joseph Haughey
haughey@nwmissouri.edu

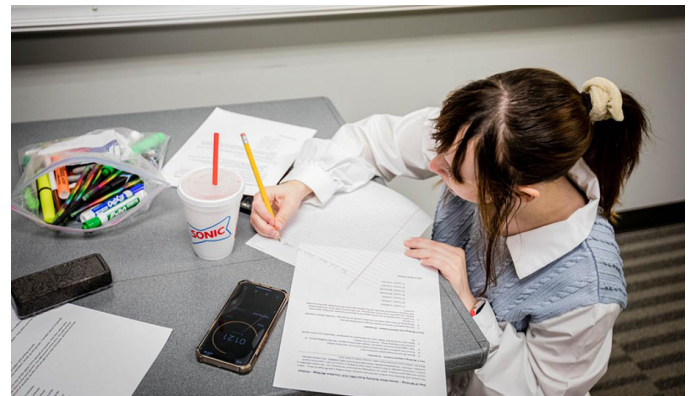

SCHOLARSHIPS

In addition to institutional merit-based scholarships, English Education students are eligible for:

• Albertini	$1,675
• Goad	$250
• Gossard Johnsons	$500
• Eddice B. & Lee E. Barber	$1,200
• Jewett	$700
• Litte	$600
• Slater	$1,125

PAIRS WELL WITH

- Computer Science or Information Systems
Opens doors to instructional design, Corporate Training & Development & more
- Business or Marketing
Educational program specialist, coordinator, or owner
- Music, Art or Sociology
Creative or community facilitator, workshop designer, or curriculum developer

STUDENT WORK

Northwest's education programs have been nationally accredited since 1954 and is the third institution in the United States to be awarded the Christa McAuliffe Excellence in Teacher Education Award twice (2006 & 2018). Graduates routinely experience a placement rate nearing 100% and all are guided through coursework and licensing appropriate for Missouri Department of Secondary Education teacher certification.