Northwest provides primary textbooks for most of the undergraduate courses at a fee of $6 per credit hour. This unique rental program at Northwest offers textbooks to students at below average cost compared to other Universities. For example, students completing an undergraduate degree at Northwest will pay approximately $744 in textbook fees through the Textbook Rental Program.

First-time freshmen and transfer students may elect to opt-out of the Textbook Rental Program for the entirety of their college career at the university. Students who wish to opt-out of the Textbook Rental Program must complete this form and return it to the Cashiering Office by the following deadlines:

- August 1 for fall school terms, or within one week of enrollment if enrolled after August 1;
- December 1 for spring school terms, or within one week of enrollment if enrolled after December 1; or
- Within one week of enrollment for summer school terms.
