What we do

- Tutorial assistance for improvement of academic grades and skills.
- Academic enrichment courses such as:
  - English
  - Science
  - Writing
  - Computers
  - Math
  - Social Science
  - Foreign Language
  - Financial Literacy
- Academic, career, and personal counseling.
- Leadership training and development opportunities.
- Assistance with obtaining information about post-secondary institutions and their academic programs.
- Assistance with college admissions, ACT testing, financial aid, scholarships and dual credit expenses.
- Cultural, educational, and recreational enrichment activities and trips.
- Travel to a variety of other university campuses.

Are you eligible

If you will be a first-generation college student who wants to succeed in college, or if you meet federal income requirements, you may be eligible. Services and activities are available to the student and their family at no cost. We do ask that students are willing to invest in their future by taking full advantage of the opportunities offered through the program.

How to apply

- Visit the Upward Bound website and download the application, found under the forms page.

  OR

- Ask your school counselor for an application.

We look forward to helping you pursue your ambitions and achieving your full potential!
Program Mission
Upward Bound provides low-income and/or first-generation high school students enriched academic, social, cultural and personal support in high school completion, post-secondary achievement and life-long success.

Program Vision
Upward Bound aspires to develop leaders ready to contribute in a global and diverse society by providing instruction, activities and services where participants succeed academically, financially, socially and emotionally through college and beyond.

Program Values
• Quality academic, career and personal student advisement and counseling
• Exploration of colleges and career opportunities
• the Enrichment of leadership training and development opportunities
• the Importance of college and financial preparedness
• Cultural enrichment and personal growth

Northwest Missouri State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, sex, age, or handicap.

Upward Bound is a federal grant program funded annually by the U.S. Department of Education for $358,086.

Sept. 2015

www.nwmissouri.edu/trio